

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LIST OF FIGURES	13
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	17
INTRODUCTION: A CATALOG OF NAMES	19
I. A SPECTRUM OF NAMES	27
Onomastic formulae	29
Single names	29
Pairs of names	31
Tria nomina , multiple names and polyonymy	34
Filiation, slaves and freed(wo)men	36
Voting tribes	38
Onomastic influence, Roman citizenship and integration	39
The depth of the Roman onomastic system on Crete	39
Gender and the epigraphic habit of Roman Crete	39
Epigraphical and social prestige	40
The breadth of the Roman onomastic system: networks of nomina	42
Conclusions: a spectrum of names	44
II. NAMES IN A LANDSCAPE	45
Subregions of Crete	46
Major cities and ports	46
Gortyn and the Messara	48
Hierapytna and eastern Crete	51
Lytos and Chersonesos	55
Knossos and Herakleion	57
Lappa and Kydonia	60
Smaller cities and ports	61

Smaller cities and ports west of Gortyn, Knossos, and Lyttos	62
Smaller cities and ports east of Gortyn, Knossos, and Lyttos	63
Sanctuaries	65
Locations abroad	66
Roman ways of naming: distribution, differentiation, and depth	67
Conclusions: names in a landscape	71
III. A CHRONICLE OF NAMES	73
Chronological periods	73
The pre-imperial period	73
The first century BCE to first century	75
The first and first-second century	76
The second century	79
The second-third and third centuries	81
The broadly imperial period	83
Names over time: cities, ports, and sanctuaries	84
Conclusions: a chronicle of names	86
IV. NON-IMPERIAL NOMINA	87
The variety and (un)commonness of Cretan non-imperial nomina	87
Italian origins or connections for immigrants to Crete	90
The (un)commonness and distribution of nomina in the Italian peninsula	92
The special case of Knossos and Lappa	96
Crete in the context of the Eastern Mediterranean	98
The (un)commonness and distribution of nomina in the Eastern Mediterranean	98
The special case of Knossos and Lappa	102
The Cretan context	104
Non-imperial nomina in the Cretan landscape	104
Non-imperial nomina over time	108
Non-imperial nomina with cognomina and Greek personal names	110

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Non-imperial nomina in the Cretan economy	113
Non-imperial nomina in the Cretan elite	114
Conclusions: non-imperial nomina	116
V. IMPERIAL NOMINA	117
Five imperial nomina	118
Cretan Iulii	118
Cretan Claudii	119
Cretan Flavii	121
Cretan Ulpai	122
Cretan Aelii	123
The Cretan context	124
Imperial nomina in the Cretan landscape	124
Imperial nomina over time	125
Imperial nomina with Greek personal names and cognomina	126
Imperial nomina in the Cretan economy and among elites	128
Conclusions: imperial nomina	130
VI. COGNOMINA	131
A variety of cognomina	131
The geographical and chronological distribution of cognomina	132
Cognomina in the landscape of Crete	132
Cognomina over time	135
The social significance of cognomina attested alone	136
Cognomina in the Cretan economy and among elites	139
Conclusions: cognomina	140
VII. IMMIGRATION, ENFRANCHISEMENT, AND INTEGRATION	141
Immigration	142
Enfranchisement	145
Integration	147
Cognomina and Greek personal names	147
The Cretan economy and elite	149
Conclusions: immigration, enfranchisement, integration	151

CATALOG	153
APPENDIX: ROMAN OFFICIALS AND ADMINISTRATORS NOT NAMED ON OR IN CONNECTION WITH CRETE	509
WORKS CITED	527
INDICES	559
Select index of other persons pertinent to Crete	561
Index of cognomina borne by Cretans	562
Index of Greek personal names for or associated with Cretans who bore Roman names	565
Index of incomplete personal names, Latin or Greek, of Cretans who bore Roman names	570
Index of Cretan place names	571
Select index of words and phrases pertinent to Cretans and Cretan society	576